Mezirow's theory of transformative learning has always relied on the work of Jürgen Habermas in order to give it a sound theoretical base. This chapter outlines Mezirow's theory of transformative learning, attending to its reliance on critical theory which contributes important concepts such as domains of.

Transformative learning (Mezirow, 1991, 1995, 1996; Cranton, 1994, 1996) is the process of effecting change in a frame of reference. Adults have acquired a coherent body of experience—as sociations, concepts, values, feelings, conditioned responses—frames of reference that define their life world.
